INTRODUCTION TO THE MAJOR
The Department of Ancient Greek and Roman Studies (AGRS) offers training in ancient Greek and Latin from the ground up, enabling students to encounter texts such as Homer's Odyssey and Ovid's Metamorphoses in their original form.

Students have three options: they can major in Greek, in Latin, or Greek & Latin (i.e. both). Students contextualize their work in the languages and deepen their understanding of the literature by delving into Greek and Roman civilization (art, philosophy, religion, etc.), in classes led by AGRS professors who are renowned for innovative scholarship and dedication to undergraduate teaching.

AMPLIFY YOUR MAJOR
• Achieve a broader perspective on Greek and Latin through study abroad.
• Begin your language study with the Greek or Latin Summer Workshop (funding available).
• Challenge yourself by pursuing honors in Greek or Latin.
• Publish your work in the Berkeley Undergraduate Journal of Classics.

THE AGRS COMMUNITY
Studying Greek and/or Latin in AGRS means connection to a community at Berkeley and beyond.
• Our students go on to law school, medical school, computer science, finance, teaching and graduate study in Classics, History, Philosophy, and other disciplines.
• Our advising team includes a professional advisor and two faculty advisors. Students have support in course planning, student life, career exploration and navigating the university.
• Get to know our graduate students who teach some language courses.

"Class settings are smaller, with time for questions and discussions. Students get to know one another."

– Mackhai Nguyen, Latin Major
